

MARRIAGE WITHOUT STRAIN

Just as you were created by God not to struggle in life, so should your marriage not be troubled in any way. Adam and Eve did not struggle to have each other, likewise should you not find it difficult getting a wife or husband. According to Ecclesiastics 4:9-12, two are better than one because they have better reward for their labour. When one of them is attacked, the other can defend. The coming together of two people in marriage has synergistic effect. And when you add God to the mix, the passage says: a three-fold chord is not quickly broken.

Marriage wades away and neutralises the enemy. The scripture also says that if one falls, the other will lift up the fallen one but woe to anyone who is alone because when they falls, he won't have someone to help them.

The bible says if one is prevailed against, two shall withstand the enemy. Marriage comes to mind when you consider the scripture: one will put to flight a thousand while two will put to flight 10,000. (Deut 32:30). You cannot compare the success of one person with the glory of two people coming together and making waves against the power of darkness.

It is God's desire for marriages in turmoil to become harmonious. It is wrong intending honeymoon for just days or weeks after wedding. Your marriage should remain a honey in the moon till death do you part. If you've been enjoying your marriage and the wine suddenly goes sour, you must realise it was not so from the beginning. God didn't create marriage for shame and reproach. He created it to be savored.

Couples who pray together get better results than when they pray alone. The devil does not want couples to be together because he knows that two can put 10,000 of his demons to flight. I speak healing to your marriages and relationships in Jesus name. There should be reconciliation in marriages for things to work and for the children to enjoy. The children are greatly affected when their parents don't see eye to eye.

It is not God's will for marriages to be subjected to struggles or pain. You cannot compare the results you get while lonely with when you're united with your partner. That is why there are greater outcome from the corporate prayers and fellowship of the Church than that of individuals.

Marriage brings about progress and honour. It is for glory not for shame or malice. Hebrews 13:4 says *marriage is honourable...*When couple come together, they forge a force that yields tremendous results out of life.

Among other disadvantages, incidence of crisis in a marriage can make a couple miss out on what they could have easily got from each other. I therefore command healing upon every troubled marriage in Jesus' name, Amen! I restore such troubled marriages to the default mode as designed by God. And for those waiting upon the Lord for life partners, this is your season to be engaged with ease. Receive and rejoice, Amen!
