

Holy Ghost My Helper

Issue 20-1110

A lot of people are mistaken in their understanding of destiny helper. This wrong notion explains why destiny helpers are not forthcoming. It is incontrovertible that some people have been positioned to get you to the palace or that great destiny you carry. Even Joseph whose trajectory teaches that there is a place for destiny helper, acknowledged this in Genesis 40:14 when he told the chief butler, whose dream while in prison he just interpreted, to: think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

The incarcerated official, who was to be restored to his very close position to Pharaoh, was meant to be Joseph's destiny helper. Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgot him, according to verse 23. This man to whom Joseph was good and friends with while in prison to the extent of knowing his countenance did not only forgot him but forgot him for two whole years. This is why you must not see any man as your destiny helper; they will always forget either willfully or conveniently. But thank God for God, who is our real Helper. He has a way of compelling destiny helpers to do what they should do even when they are unwilling or had forgotten the good turn you did them. When the chief butler forgot about

Joseph and his specific plea to him, God created a need in the palace which left the former prisoner with no option than to recommend Joseph to the king. This is because the problem requires a solution which he has experienced as Joseph's forte. Further, this particular problem defied and made mockery of all the wise men and magicians at the king's service. The problem in question is Pharaoh's dream recorded in Genesis 41:1-7. As it were, God forced the hand of the chief butler to remember Joseph and do the needful which resulted in Joseph being made the Prime Minister of Egypt.

The story of Mordecai, a gateman at the palace, presents another instance of our subject of discussion. King Ahasuerus was his destiny helper for Mordecai had saved him by exposing the plot by Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus, Esther 6:2. Despite this life-saving intervention that should have brought Mordecai presidential honour and dignity. This destiny did not materialize until God caused the king to suffer insomnia as narrated in that chapter.

God, stepping into the scene, made Mordecai actualize his destiny in such a fashion that his hater, Haman, who was the king's man Friday, was tasked to Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head: And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Esther 6:8-9. Beloved, no one can do it better when it comes to making your destiny come alive.

Through his Holy Spirit, God can connect you to the most powerful office in the world. John 14:16, 26 (NIV) says: And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever... But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you. There is however the need for you to play your part by being diligent for Proverbs 22:18 says: Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.

The Holy Ghost will direct traffic of men and angels to help you this week in Jesus name, Amen!

Joseph Ahorowa
