

BE THE Best

Issue 21-0223

All creature have an earnest longing for believers to begin living God's kind of life which will yield manifest antidote to existential and other forms of challenges facing the universe. "Waiting" as used in the context of Romans 8:19 means that people of varied background and race are ready to bypass your competitors who are around them in search of you who is hundreds of miles away. Don't worry about how they will get to hear of you, your manifestation by being the best in what you do is enough publicity and will make them seek you wherever you are. Creature are mindful of their inadequacies and insecurities hence are earnestly looking forward to when the anointed of God will start shining their light in these areas. These breed of people have the magic wands and the wherewithal to light up the thick darkness drenching the world.

Your manifestation should be such that can make kings and personages travel the distance to come to the brightness of your rising. This can only happen when you're guided by Ecclesiastes 9:10a which demands that: Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might. As someone whose manifestation is being anticipated by creature, you must be stellar and be the world-best such that the entire universe is your field of play.

Bear in mind that the entire creature that is waiting for your manifestation includes: presidents, kings and rulers of great empires in this world who have appetite for optimum services and deliverable irrespective of the premium such would cost them. Little wonder Proverbs 22:29 says: "Seest thou a man diligent in his business? He shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men."

The time for you to be shown forth to your world has come; you've been under the bushel for far too long, thereby denying creature the benefits of the glory you carry. The time for your manifestation is now. The time has come for your business and expertise to impact on the 7.8 billion people in the world. Whatever is covering your glory has been removed so remove yourself from obscurity. Now that the entire world is groping in gross darkness is indeed the best time for you to manifest your light.

Romans 8:22 says that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now, when are you set for manifestation. This scripture is very apt given that we are in a time when people are experiencing untold hardship with lives and livelihoods steadily ebbing away. Creature is therefore anxiously waiting for saviours whom Obadiah 1:21 assures shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD'S.

To be among these saviours, you must therefore set out to be the best. Drill yourself to own the process for solution and become an authority in the field which God has called you into. What the Almighty has deposited in you may seem insignificant, crude and formless at first; that's usually the appearance of His talent. God gives you a bit of His glory and expects you to get to work until you've refined this raw material to stand you out and make you the toast of your generation.

If Children of God can play their part by being the best in their various callings, the kingdom of God will experience an explosion from which the world can never recover. Strive to discover and deliver on that divine deposit in you so that creature can start enjoying your manifestation. If you were not meant to be the best, they wouldn't have been waiting all this while. Their wait is because you are endowed with the solution no one else has. It is time to manifest your glory, kings and VIPs from all over the globe are coming to the brightness of your rising. Creature waits for thoroughbred, not amateurs. Be deliberately driven by the passion to be the best in all your doings and you would have satisfied the yearning of creation. Being the best is a lifestyle, adapt to it now; your world is waiting for you!

GOOD REPORT

‘International Company Forces Distributorship on Me’

There is this prophecy from the Senior Pastor that “they will force good things on you”. Praise God for this prophecy has found expression in my life through the international connection God brought to my business. Someone living in the same street where my shop is located had been telling me about an international company that wants to do business with me. I deal on household utensils and this neighbor told me that the company supplies such items and she believes I’m industrious enough for me to be supplied wares from this company. I didn’t show interest in the business but they kept pestering. Early this month, I received a credit alert and three days later, the company called, asking me to place orders for the goods I need and the items will be supplied. To the glory of God, during our prayer meeting at the new Highland Church facility, the company called and said they were heading to the address of my shop which they got from the internet. When I got to the shop, I saw that they have supplied all the items without me depositing a kobo but gave me two weeks to make returns for the supplies. Praise be to the name of the Lord.

Highlanders Activate Key for ‘Plenty’ and ‘New Opportunities’

Though members of Highland Church offered precious seeds during the First-Fruits Service last Sunday, they didn’t do this in tears but rejoiced and glorified God while sowing their first salary and profit received in the year 2021. It was a one-of-a-kind service which saw the Senior Pastor dressed like a Rabbi, declares unto the people that God instructed him to tell Highlanders that “He is pleased with them”. The eagerness and joy with which congregants sacrificed their precious income surpassed expectations; they had received teachings and heard inspiring testimonies of members who had heeded this kingdom principle and experienced unimaginable promotions and breakthroughs afterwards. The excitement was evident as worshippers were made to understand that prosperity starts from giving to God and that when the seed leaves their hands, harvest drops from Heaven’s Throne. In the two services, the first-fruits offering began with members confessing unto the Lord how wretched they were until God brought them into their present glorious state. This was followed by the worship of God through quality praise and dancing as the first-fruits were presented. This was followed by the Highland High Priest pronouncing blessings upon all who keyed into the Kingdom principle. Having done their part, Highlanders can now look forward to the new opportunities and abundance which first-fruits offering attract, as assured by Proverbs 3:9-10.

You Can Be a Prayer-Chain Partner

There is an operation going on in Highland Church which you should be a part of for your spiritual growth. This is the Prayer-Chain Initiative of the Prayer Winners department of the Church. A prayerful church is a healthy church; the great move of God palpable in every service and programme at Highland Church is, among other factors, a function of the fervent supplications of the brethren. With Prayer-Chain Partners, Highlanders are paired and allotted days of the week on which to pray. The next team picks up the baton the day after in such a manner that prayers are being carried out for the Church leadership and members day-in, day-out. This operation is not just for members of the Prayer department but is opened to all who seek an increased intimacy with God. Interested highlanders should meet with Pastor Lanre Omojowo and Pastor Atinuke Aborowa to be conscripted into this spiritual force. Meanwhile, the on-ground prayer meeting of Highland Church holds every Saturday between 8am to 9am at the Upper Room of the main building in Bethel.

First-Ever Prayer Session Holds on Oregon Site and It Was Glorious!

Last Saturday, Highland Church leadership and workers turned out in their numbers at Plot 2/3 Kudirat Abiola Way, Oregon, Lagos to prophesy and take possession of the new facility which the Lord has made available for His Church. Prayers and declarations flowed freely as the congregants dispersed in various directions of the sprawling premises to claim every inch of it for Jesus and saturate the environment with the glory of God. Leading in the prayers, Senior Pastor Joseph Aborowa declared the new site as a place of God's power and presence, adding that the five pillars of Highland Church shall find expression in the Oregon location. Renovation works are going on in frantic pace at the new facility.
